New World of Work:

The California Community Colleges (CCC) is the largest system of higher education in the nation with 72 districts and 114 colleges serving 2.1 million students each year through workforce training, basic skills courses in English and math, and preparation to transfer to four-year colleges and universities. The Doing What MATTERS for Jobs and the Economy framework of CCC, which funds the New World of Work program, collaborates with employers, workforce development boards, educators and research organizations across the country to build college/career-ready, 21st century employability skills. All content is open source to reduce economic barriers to success.

21st Century Skills: Fast Track to the Future

- Go by many names:
  Applied skills, employability skills, competencies, college/career ready skills, transferable skills, and soft skills.

- What they are:
  Knowledge, work habits, and character traits necessary to succeed in this rapidly changing world.

- The good news:
  Just like any other subject, 21st Century Skills can be taught, practiced, and incorporated into everyone’s life.

  21st Century Skills can also be showcased online through the use of digital badges, creating a bridge from education settings out into the workforce.
Digital Badges

- Digital Badges are an online record of achievement and visual representation of skills.

Workshop Objectives

• Learn about resilience and grit
• Explore how concrete supports and social connections help build resilience
• Learn from each other ways to strengthen personal resilience
• Experience how NWoW workshops can build partnerships between your industry partners, clients, and the community college system
Resilience: Attributes

• Believes in personal growth and change by seeing new knowledge and skills as a way of life, not just a one-time thing.

• Sets priorities and goals, anticipates possible consequences, and has back-up plans.
  • Listens to others’ views while also speaking up for oneself in order to learn from feedback and resolve conflicts.

• Bounces back when things go wrong. Figures out what happened and how to learn from it when making future decisions.
Resilience & Grit

• Remember the iceberg

  • Network – Social Supports
    • One of the most important pieces that you can build to help you be RESILIENT.

  • Concrete Support – Use your NETWORK to help you when things get tough.

  • Health – Take care of yourself physically, mentally, spiritually, and emotionally. You need your health to weather the storms that are coming!
