

Advancing Racial Equity and Economic Inclusion

Join the Alameda County Workforce Development Board this winter for a two-part workshop with Dr. Abbie Langston of PolicyLink to learn about ongoing research, advocacy, strategies for using data to advance racial equity, and recommendations to achieve economic inclusion.

Part I

Policy Link will discuss how disaggregated data can inform high-impact solutions to foster racial economic inclusion, what the indicators in the National Equity Atlas tell us about the state of workforce equity in the Bay Area, and some of the key insights from recent report, Advancing Workforce Equity in the Bay Area: A Blueprint for Action.

Thursday, December 2, 2021 | 1:30pm – 3:00pm | Event Registration Link

Part II

Policy Link will dig deeper into the history and drivers of racial gaps in labor market outcomes and provide recommendations for embedding racial equity across the workforce ecosystem.

Thursday, January 27, 2022 | 1:30pm – 3:00pm | Event Registration Link
